

R. Clay Bartlett

Attorney At Law

Mr. Bartlett is based out of the firm's Fort Collins office, though he supports clients throughout Northern Colorado and in Denver as well.

Mr. Bartlett serves as a trusted advisor to clients in business finance and real estate, empowering them to maximize value, minimize risk or otherwise achieve their goals by providing a unique combination of business and legal expertise and the resources to handle any business finance or real estate related legal need. In doing so, Mr. Bartlett helps clients start, manage and buy and sell businesses. He also assists clients in real estate with raw land acquisitions, development, construction, sale and leasing.

Mr. Bartlett received his Bachelor of Science in Business Administration as well as his law degree from the University at Buffalo. During law school, Mr. Bartlett clerked for the Honorable Judge Edward C. Moss in Brighton, CO and was a member of the Buffalo Environmental Law Journal.

Before attending law school, Mr. Bartlett enjoyed a successful career in commercial banking, where he managed client relationships and a portfolio of commercial loans and assisted with strategic business planning, credit monitoring, portfolio management and risk mitigation.

In addition to his law practice, Mr. Bartlett takes great pride in serving his community. Presently, he sits on the Board of Directors for the Fort Collins Downtown Business Association.
