

Walter A. Winslow Attorney At Law

Walter Winslow's practice focuses on complex business and real estate transactions and contracts, mergers and acquisitions, business formation, owner agreements (including shareholder and partner agreements), commercial and residential leases, liens and foreclosures, construction law, eminent domain (a governmental taking of private property for public purposes) and related business and real estate litigation. Mr. Winslow's background in accounting and business gives him valuable knowledge when advising small and medium sized businesses with their legal issues. He provides his clients with quality legal advice so business owners can focus on their business and real estate needs, not legal matters. He is committed to helping business owners across the Fort Collins and Northern Colorado area grow their business.

Mr. Winslow has been a practiced lawyer since 1996. He obtained his B.S.B.A. in accounting from the University of Dayton and was a member of the Beta Alpha Psi, an accounting honor society. Mr. Winslow graduated in the top 25% of his class from the University of Dayton School of Law, where he was also an associate editor on the Law Review. After law school, Mr. Winslow clerked for the Honorable Thomas Rose of the Greene County Common Pleas Court, who was subsequently appointed to the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Ohio.

Mr. Winslow is admitted to practice before all courts in the State of Colorado and is also admitted to practice before the U.S. District Court, District of Colorado and Northern District of Ohio, and the U.S. Court of Appeals, Sixth and Tenth Circuits. He has lectured for the National Business Institute on choice of business entities and for private businesses.

Mr. Winslow is an active member of the Northern Colorado community. He currently holds and has held numerous positions in a variety of organizations. He is a former board member to the Childsafe, a non-profit organization that provides sexual abuse treatment to children and their families. He is also a former board member of the University of Dayton Alumni Association, Denver Chapter. He enjoys outdoor activities such as mountain biking, hiking, snow shoeing and skiing.

Mr. Winslow's clients see him as their trusted advisor in real estate and business matters involving transactions, contracts, mergers and acquisitions, construction issues and related litigation. His office is located in the firm's Fort Collins office.
