Matthew Chudacoff, Attorney at Law

Mr. Chudacoff is based in Fort Collins and supports clients throughout Northern Colorado and the greater Denver area as part of CP2's business litigation team. Mr. Chudacoff's practice focuses on litigation and appeals, with an emphasis on resolving business, commercial, real estate, construction, natural resources, and employment disputes in state and federal courts and administrative tribunals. He is admitted to practice before all courts in the State of Colorado and the State of Wyoming, as well as the U.S. Federal District Court for the Districts of Colorado and Wyoming.

Mr. Chudacoff graduated with highest honors from the University of Wyoming College of Law, where he was elected to the Order of the Coif, served on the Wyoming Law Review, and was awarded the Brimmer Scholarship. Prior to entering private practice, Mr. Chudacoff served as law clerk to Justice Kate M. Fox of the Wyoming Supreme Court.

Mr. Chudacoff is currently an adjunct professor at the University of Wyoming College of Law. He also serves on the Board of Directors of the Pathfinder Drug Abuse Treatment Council and is a member of Inns of Court.
